Immanuel Christian School Alternative Program

We will:

- Integrate Christian perspective in the teaching of the curriculum and all school activities as described in the Mission Statement, Educational Philosophy, and the Statement of Faith.
- Provide sound academic instruction taught by Christian professionals in a setting where students are nurtured as they learn, question and develop a solid Biblical worldview.
- Encourage each student to discover and develop their God-given gifts and talents and to use them for joyful service in His kingdom.
- Model Christian principles and values through our interactions with students, parents and fellow staff members.
- Maintain consistency in expectations of student behaviour and in discipline of student misbehaviour, so as to create a safe environment for all students to flourish.
- Inform parents about school activities and welcome their involvement in the life of the school.
- Provide learning opportunities beyond the classroom that promote growth of students' intellectual, spiritual, physical and social natures.
- Pray daily with and for our student body and provide opportunities for all students to participate in devotional and service activities.
- Assist students in the direction and decision making of their vocation/profession.
- Ensure the staff is committed to collaborative learning and ongoing Christian professional growth.

Parents/Guardians

We will:

- Be committed to the Mission Statement, Statement of Faith, and Educational Philosophy of the school.
- Support the school through prayer, encouragement, involvement and attendance at school, Society, and fundraising functions.
- Model a Christ-like attitude in communication and interaction with school personnel and other parents, and in dealing with all concerns and conflicts.
- Ensure our children participate fully and respectfully in the school's integrated Christian program, which includes devotions, bible study, chapel and service projects.
- Support and reinforce with our children the schools' behavioral and academic expectations as described in the student handbook, setting appropriate expectations for our children and ensuring they establish positive home study routines.

- Provide a home environment that supports the Christian school program.
- Regularly attend a Christian church that supports and is in agreement with the ICS Statement of Faith.

Students

I will:

- Be committed to the Mission Statement, Statement of Faith, and Educational Philosophy of the school.
- Participate respectfully and fully in the school's integrated Christian program, which includes devotions, bible study, chapel and service projects.
- Keep myself from situations that lead to involvement in unacceptable behaviours as I realize that these activities not only will affect my physical health but can affect my spiritual health as well.
- Use discernment in my choice of language, clothing, electronic media entertainment, social settings and other lifestyle choices, so as to refrain from any practice that is Biblically condemned or deemed illegal by law.
- Respect my fellow students, school personnel, school property and myself by making choices that reflect a Christ-like attitude.
- Pray for other students at the school.
- Engage in the honest pursuit of knowledge, including punctual and regular class attendance, and avoiding all forms of academic dishonesty.
- Work hard, try as best I can to succeed and learn, and strive to develop the talents and gifts God has given me in preparation for joyful service to the Lord.
- Accept that discipline, encouragement and correction are used to equip the people of God for every good work (2 Timothy 3:16).

We the undersigned have read and agree with the above statements, as well as the Statement of Faith (Schedule A) and the Educational Philosophy {Schedule B} of the Immanuel Christian Schools Alternative Program.
